

BACKEND DEVELOPER

OTE Group of Companies (HTO) Athens, Attiki, Greece

Candidate will be working with a modern technological stack, developing applications that matter to the end-user and will be responsible for the design, build, test and maintain scalable, stable, and highly responsive custom off the shelf Microservice API technology solutions to meet business needs., in the IT areas of CRM, Order Management and Integration.

Duties & responsibilities

- Works closely with the architects, business analysts, software engineers and other employees to execute project plans.
- Analyzes specifications and requirements for designing and implementing end-to-end solutions with functional and technical components.
- Designs, develops, and implements web-based Java applications to support business requirements. Follows approved life cycle methodologies, creates design documents, and performs program coding and testing.
- Contributes to the design and development of high quality software

Required Skills

- Design and development using Microservices using Java 11+, Spring Boot, Spring Cloud, Docker and Kubernetes.
- Core development experience in large scale enterprise Java applications using Spring Framework.
- Experience with RESTful services, Rabbit MQ, JSON, Unix Scripting, Kafka.
- Experience with Distributed Logging and Metrics frameworks such as Logstash, Elasticsearch, Kibana, Grafana, or similar frameworks.
- Experience with Continuous Integration and Continuous Deployment processes and pipelines (GitLab, Jenkins, Nexus, JX).
- Experience with a RDMBS such as Oracle SQL or MySQL or Postgres.
- Experience with Maven.
- Experience in Microservices springboot ,Github, Java, Kafka MongoDB
- Demonstrate and promote respect, professionalism, positive behavior and team spirit.
- Fluency in English language (Verbal and Written).

Preferred Skills

- Experience with Testing (JUnit / Spock).
- Familiar with Agile – Scrum Project Management Methodology.