Software Engineer

As a member of the Billing Mobile team the candidate will be responsible for daily support, troubleshooting and development of the billing and charging applications. The members' role includes product analysis, configuration and testing till production release.

Duties & responsibilities
- Configures and develops the billing products in both on-line and off-line charging systems.
- Participates in various projects covering all aspects of the Telco lifecycle
- Participates in SITs and UATs for new/existing product releases
- Manages billing/charging matters and makes corrections/checks when necessary
- Is involved in troubleshooting and after-care support
- Identifies design gaps and improvements of the billing/charging process
- Co-ordinates vendors and ensures quality of deliverables

Required Skills
- Bachelor's degree (or equivalent) in Computer Science or a related field
- Good knowledge of Ericsson Billing/Charging platforms
- Good knowledge of Java and C++
- Good knowledge of Oracle SQL
- Very good knowledge of the English language

Preferred Skills
- Good knowledge of Gy/CAMEL Protocols
- Good understanding of 5G Protocols and standards
- Good understanding of security related standards for IT projects and systems
- Ability to manage complex projects and resolve complex issues
- Ability to take initiatives